

Many events planned locally to help celebrate Legion Week

Premier Mike Harris is kicking off Legion Week across Ontario, including in Stouffville and Clarendon.

In Stouffville, the big event hosted by the local Legion is a steak social, including a dance to be held on Sept. 23 at the Stouffville Legion hall on the Ninth Line.

Steak is served at 7 p.m. followed by dancing at 9 p.m. The music plays until 1 a.m.

Cost of dinner and dance is $12. Dinner only costs $7. Admission for the dance only is $5.

Premier Harris pointed out that Ontario is "one of the best places on earth" because of the members of the Royal Canadian Legion.

The Clarendon Legion Branch 483 will host a number of fun-filled events throughout the week beginning with an open house and a horseshoe tournament on Sept. 10 at 10 a.m.

A dart game will be held on on Sept. 12 at 7:30 p.m.

Cribbage will be on the agenda on Sept. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, euchre is the game on Sept. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

On Sept. 14 at 7:30 p.m., participants will enjoy the ladies auxiliary games night.

Mini-euchre complete with entertainment by Doc Brown will be held on Sept. 16.

A golf tournament is slated for Spring Creek on Sept. 17.
