ALASKA 1996

I would like to invite you to a special cruise night. During this evening you will discover the allure of Alaska. We will have a video to share as well as specialists on this destination. We will also offer a special May group departure where I will act as your escort. May is an excellent month to travel. All the attractions are open, animal sightings are superb and the cruise rates are lower. We will also have availability on all the other Alaska summer departure dates with early booking rates. I hope you can join us.
