Sentiment true

Dear Editor,
 "Thanksgiving Day" A celebration for many in the true spirit of the thankfulness, for others it is a very difficult time.

Again, the Executive of the Whitchurch-Stouffville Food Bank calls upon the community to support the Thanksgiving Food Drive, Oct. 3-10. The need for the Food Bank is not quickly diminishing. We serve about 90 families in the area.

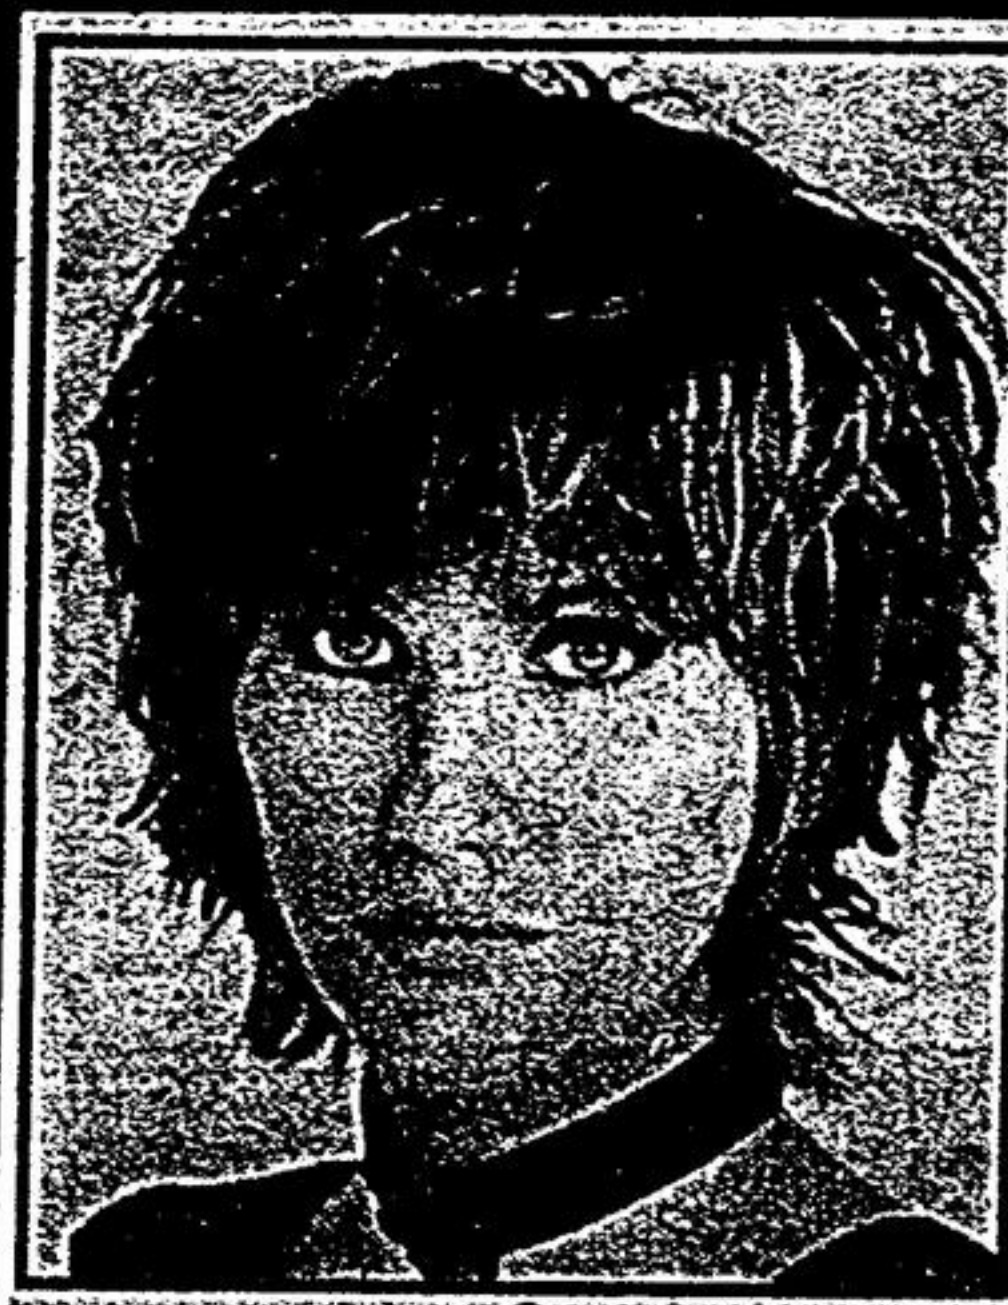

It is through the generosity of all organizations, businesses, and residents of this town that we always have sufficient supplies to meet the need. We trust you will continue to be generous throughout this Food Drive. A special bag for your food donations will be enclosed in one of the local papers during the week of Oct. 3rd.

We are asking for donations of non-perishable foods such as canned meat, fruit, vegetables, juice, stew, soup, spaghetti sauce, pasta and cereals.

Your food offerings can be taken to any one of the following places, Fire Hall, A & P, IGA, Weston's Stores, T.D. Bank, or Care and Share Shoppe.

We trust your donations will be a "Thanks" giving that everyone might truly celebrate Thanksgiving. Sincerely,

Esther Powell
 Co-Ordinator, W.S.F.B.

Dream Fashions for work, play and evening

This fall the name of this Unionville, clothier reflects their dreamy collection of suits and separates of fall styles for every occasion.

Whether it's a suit for the office, casual weekend wear, outerwear or a cozy fall sweater, Dream Leather Fashions is the store where your dreams come true, says owner Elizabeth Schindler.

The store houses a selection of the legendary Castleberry Knits line which offers elegant Chanel-inspired fine knit suitings for day or evening. The line is machine washable and because it's a light weight polyester knit, can be worn all year round. Colors are bold with royal blue, hunter red and black as favorites.

Jacques Vert and Tricoville offer further knit options in wool blends. Both provide smart, sophisticated looks, says fashion consultant Grace Tomaszewski. Detailing in the Jacques Vert line (which also comes in plus sizes) includes embroidery for a special touch while Tricoville lends excitement with a subtle burst of shine via beading accents around jacket collars and cuffs.

The selection doesn't end there! The Kapital line, designed in Germany, is made up of 100 per cent merino wool separates that can be mixed and matched for a casual or more dressed up look, adds Elizabeth. "It's easy to create your own outfit with this line because the pieces are clean and simple and are made to work together for a number of looks."

If pampering yourself in luxurious style is your choice, have a look at the Kabri knits offered at Dream Leather Fashions. The combination cashmere and merino wool sweaters and matching skirts come in seductive pastels as well as fall jewel colors.

In addition, the store carries an assortment of separates by the British-based GTL as well as serious suitings by the ever-popular Louben. Outerwear remains a specialty at Dream Leather Fashions with a variety of full-length cashmere/wool coats, parkas, shawls, and of course leathers.

This year the store is featuring designs by Dominic Bellissimo. Rich in style, these leathers are buttery soft lambskins which incorporate lace, fox and artful stitching details. The Marquis leathers, lined in fur, are ideal for Canadian winters and come in sporty stylings. Buckles, zippers and quilting are signatures of Marquis.

In addition, Dream Leather Fashions continues to offer their own line of quality leather items, which can be custom designed by Elizabeth and are manufactured on the premises.

Furthermore, a full selection of accessories - scarves, gloves, hats, handbags and jewelry custom made by Et Sequentia to match lines carried in the store - are all available.

For one-stop shopping in order to make your fashion dreams come true, visit Dream Leather Fashions at 186 Main St., Unionville. For more information call 470-0904.
