town. Emmerson said he spoke with police and they assured him Crier's third

Marcel Bossi can still yell with the best of 'em.

Stouffville's official town crier placed third at the 1995 Ontario Guild of Town Criers Provincial Championships this past weekend in Chatham.

Twenty competitors from as far away as Sault Ste. Marie called, hollered and cried before a panel of judges to determine the best in Ontario.

While Bossi placed second in both the 1993 and the 1994 championships, a terrific third cry by Bob Heil of Lincoln pushed him ahead of Bossi by just two points out of more than 1,200 to capture second place.

Brantford's Dave McKee placed first overall, while Markham's John Webster was fourth.

The criers are judged on deportment, call content, volume and clarity and general impression.

Bossi has been town crier since 1990.

The event was held in Chatham as part of that town's centenary celebrations at their annual Heritage Days festival.

they were on top of the case. "We hope to have something within the next couple of weeks," he said. "We're doing everything in our power to get to the bottom of this." Asked if the incident highlights the need for more police patrols in town, Emmerson said police are limited in this type of situation. Youths, he said, can easily stay out of sight until police have left the area, especially at night.

He said the town has been victimized all summer long by vandals, and police need the public's help to bring such people to justice. Emmerson urged residents who witness wrongdoing to call police. Kennedy said the markers should be standing again today. While the town may offer a reward for information on the incident,

Kennedy said police have asked them to hold off until they conduct their investigation. She said police recovered some beer bottles and will test them for fingerprints. Police are asking anyone with information on the incident to call 881-1221, ext. 7541.

Did you know that our Canon Colour-Laser Copier can provide you with beautiful full colour enlargements (8 x 10) for as little as .99 a copy. All we require is a print (no looking for the long lost negative). We can also work from colour slides and negatives, even black and white negatives (a black and white print blown-up to 8 x 10 is only .60). And at a quality nearly indistinguishable from professional colour prints done while you wait - at prices you didn't think possible! For video buffs we can capture individual frames and provide full colour prints up to 11 x 17 in size.

DESK-TOP PUBLISHERS: supply us with a disk and we can produce full colour documents for school and work.
