St. Mark's Church hosts slave and treasure auction

The leaves are falling, the house needs cleaning, you need a break.

St. Mark's Catholic Church has the answer for people who have too much to do and no time to do it in. Everyone in the community is invited to attend the church's Slave and Treasure Auction, Saturday, Nov. 11. People can view the items from 11:15 a.m. and the auction will begin at noon.

Successful bidders can sit back and relax, leaving their willing slave to take over such time-consuming tasks as house cleaning, painting, baby-sitting, yard clean-up or legal services. Connoisseurs of fine food can treat themselves to a heavenly gourmet dinner for four, prepared in their home and served in fine style by Father Leslie Tamas.

Members of the younger generation aren't the only ones who enjoy raising a few eyebrows. A cool granny or grandpa can bid for the opportunity to arrive in splendid style at their grandchildren's home on a chauffeur-driven Harley-Davidson hog.

Find out all about life in local politics courtesy of Whitchurch-

Stouffville mayor Wayne Emmerson, who has donated a day with the mayor in support of the auction. A picnic lunch, prepared by Emmerson, is all part of the package.

Among the treasures on the auction block are a television, stereo, furniture, a ceiling fan, a table saw and much more. Organizers plan to hold this special fund-raiser annually and everyone is welcome to join the fun.

The event takes place at St. Mark's, 345 Glad Park Ave. and refreshments will be served for a nominal charge.

CBMI gears up for Christmas

Looking for something a little different this Christmas? Something for the whole family?

Why not drop by Christian Blind Mission International for a dramatic journey back to the first Christmas long ago and far away?

For the third year running, Christian Blind Mission International, in cooperation with the churches of Markham-Stouffville, is staging "Bethlehem Live!" an outdoor dramatization of the last mile to Bethlehem on the night Jesus was born.

From November 23 to 26 and November 30 to December 3, from 6-9 p.m., a cast of more than 100 will take you on a guided tour back in time. Dress warmly and be prepared to walk.

Refreshments will be served after the tour, and there will be opportunity to Christmas shop in CBMI's "A World of Goods" International Gift Store.

CBMI is located east of Hwy 404 at 3844 Stouffville Road, just east of Kennedy Rd.

Christian Blind Mission International is an interdenominational, worldwide fellowship dedicated to serving blind and otherwise disabled people in the developing world, irrespective of nationality, race, sex or religion.
