Remembrance Day assembly organized by OAC students

By STEPHANIE DUGGAN
Correspondent

Recently, the English department at SDSS started a school newspaper. All students have been given the invitation to help and provide their work for publication. Paul Illidge is running the newspaper, with the help of several senior students. An assembly for Remembrance Day will take place on Nov. 10 in the school gymnasium.

Numerous OAC history students are organizing the event as part of a project for their class, in remembrance of the 50th anniversary of the end of World War II.

The aim of the students is to help people realize the sacrifice that Canadians made when they went off to war.

The annual Holocaust week is from Nov. 9 to the 19. The aim of the week is to remember those who suffered through the Holocaust.

A group of students at SDSS have organized events for the week, including a guest speaker from the Holocaust Centre in Toronto.

The students will be making a presentation to the student body to make them aware of the significance of the Holocaust and how its atrocities affect people to this day.
