

Bantam Clipper squads put in solid efforts

Minor bantams

So far so good for the Boumeister Landscaping minor bantam Clippers.

The Stouffville squad has emerged from its first 13 games with an impressive eight wins against four losses and a tie.

The Clippers are being coached by veteran Paul Sinclair, who is being assisted by Jason Underwood and Paul McEwen. John Alston is team manager.

Players include forwards Tyler Armstrong, Shawn Barton, Brad Clubine, Steven Grossett, Brett Jennings, Joseph Lombardo, P.J. Mabley, Tyler Markle and Damien Peroff. The defence includes Jamie Alston, Paul Bouchard, Francis Bourqui, Bronson Leger and Ian McDougall. Jeremy Marshman and Brad Miller are sharing the goalkeeping duties.

Major bantams

Andrew Korb netted the winning goal from Lawrence Bungaro as the Edwards Murphy Painting and Decorating major bantam Clippers edged Trenton 2-1 in a road game played Sunday night (Nov. 12).

Korb set up Brad Johnston with the first Clippers goal, which was scored on a breakaway.

It was the second road win of the week for the Stouffville squad, which handed the home Newmarket team a 5-3 defeat last Tuesday.

Chris Howland had two goals, with single scores coming from Cory Turchan, Chris McDonald, and Jason Cumbers. Assists went to Johnston (2), McDonald, Kyle Harrison, Brandon Bain, Brett Boyd, and Turchan. The Clippers' only loss of the week came when they were downed 5-1 by Cobourg in their first game on Sunday. Boyd counted the lone Stouffville goal, from Harrison and P.J. Mabley.

Pee wee girls hockey team splits two games

It was win one, lose one for the Action Signs Raiders pee wee girls hockey team over the Nov. 11 weekend.

The Raiders got an early goal from Karlee Dudley, but couldn't connect after that in a 6-1 loss to the Mississauga Chiefs Sunday.

But the Stouffville squad was in top form Monday in front of a home crowd at the Rec Centre, edging the Scarborough Sharks

3-2. Jessica Clayson netted a pair for the winners, with Katie Smith adding the third Raiders marker. Julia Summerhill and Shannon Ingal combined in goal to turn away numerous Scarborough scoring opportunities.

Assists for the Stouffville squad went to Candice Miller, Gillian Apps and Jacqui VanKoughnet.
