Jag wants PQ's Bouchard charged

Quebec premier Lucien Bouchard should be denied the federal pension and then be charged with treason, Markham-Whitchurch-Stouffville MP Jag Bhaduria has stated.

Before Bouchard was sworn in as premier of Quebec, he underwent a mind change in relationship to his federal pension, valued at $32,000 a year.

Instead of pocketing the pension, Bouchard plans to donate it to the debt-ridden province of Quebec.

"The federal government shouldn't give him a pension at all," said Bhaduria. "Bouchard should be put through the court system and be charged with treason," he said. The local MP said the people overseeing the country are not taking Bouchard's plan to have Quebec separate from the rest of Canada. "We're stupid. We don't give a damn about the breakup of our country," said Bhaduria.

Fake lawyer charges faced Feb. 9

A Stouffville man, charged a year ago with being a fake lawyer, will face a real judge next week.

The trial for David Maharaj Kissen, also known as David M. Kissendath and Michael Kissen, charged with fraud will begin in an Oshawa court on Feb. 9.

Kissen, 44, was charged with five counts of fraud involving four Oshawa residents and one Clarington resident. As well, Kissen was charged with additional fraud charges in Toronto. The fraud charges are the result of the accused holding himself up to be a lawyer when, in fact, he was not and never has been a lawyer registered to practice law in Ontario, Durham Regional Police reported.

Between March of '93 and February '94, the five Durham residents paid Kissen close to $50,000 for his services as a court lawyer and for business deals that never materialized, police reported.

Also, early in the year, Toronto police charged Kissen with impersonating a lawyer after a fraud detective witnessed Kissen tell a judge he was yet another lawyer representing David Kissen on a charge of impersonating a lawyer.

In this case, Kissen had a friend from Ajax pretend to be him, while he represented him. The Law Society of Canada is aware of this case.

Kissen will make separate appearances in Toronto courts in connection with the other fake lawyer charges.
