

Minor peewees get even

Justin Amyotte scored twice to lift the Legion 459 minor peewee Clippers to a 3-2 victory over Uxbridge on Feb. 4.

The victory enabled the Clippers to tie the six-point, first round playoff series at four points each. Fraser Smith netted the third Clippers goal, while goalkeeper Richard Lynn was superb. John Lyons, Adam Christensen and Dylan Harrison had assists. The Clippers combined excellent forechecking and hard hitting to create turnovers that led to scoring chances.

The teams will finish out the series this week.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

DALE SAWYERS

Over the last two years, Dale Sawyers courted plenty of attention with his basketball exploits. And this season it paid off for the 19 year old Milliken Mills Secondary School student, who leads his club in scoring and rebounding. Just recently, the six ft. six, 190 lb. Sawyers received an offer to attend Canisius College in Buffalo, New York, next season where he will be the recipient of a full athletic scholarship. Sawyers is the first student from Milliken Mills to earn a basketball scholarship at a university in the United States.
