

Search launched to find Stouffville's top moms

A search has been launched to find all the special mothers in Stouffville. The Stouffville Conference Task Force, sponsored by the local Baha'i community, is saluting motherhood by asking the public to nominate moms to be recognized for going beyond the call of parental duty. If you have or know of a unique mother, take pen in hand and write a brief outline as to why the woman is special. Nominees can be mothers of many, mothers of special needs children, den mother types or simply put, an unsung hero kind of mom who's giving makes the world of difference. She can be a mom of little ones, a mom of teens or the mother of adult children.

advance the status of women in the community. Contest deadline is noon on May 9. Entries can be mailed to The Stouffville Conference Task Force, Post Office Box # 306, Gormley, Ontario, Postal Code L0H 1G0. Entries can also be faxed to 905-713-1901. For information, call 640-9684 or 888-1650.

Contest organizers recognize that a mom is a mom for always. And, regardless of the child's age, the need for a mom never seems to go away. A special invitation has been extended to the student body at Stouffville District Secondary School. Students are writing essays explaining why they have the best of all mothers. The essay, entitled Why My Mother Is Special To Me, is not to exceed 500 words. Task Force members will visit the school to collect the essays. Best mother nominees are all being invited to a commemoration reception and ceremony being held at Parkview Village on May 11 from 2 to 5 p.m. The woman chosen Stouffville's Mother of the Year will receive a $50-gift certificate plus other gifts. Meanwhile, runners up will receive $30 and $20 certificates. "We're looking forward to a large turnout for the contest," said Victory. "With the celebration of Mother's Day approaching, we are planning to use this holiday to recognize the station of mothers and to augment our appreciation for motherhood. We know that Stouffville is home to some very fine mothers." Last year, the task force hosted a conference on women attracting a great deal of interest.
