

Letters

Bar patron told spend more money or leave

Dear Editor,
I am a local resident of Stouffville. The other night I was in a local bar and one of the waitresses came up to me and told me that the owner does not want me back in the place because I do not spend enough money. I bought one drink and because I did not buy any more drinks I was told to leave because I am not putting in enough money in their business. I am a valuable customer and I do not think it is right to put a person out because they are not spending enough money. I don't think anything is wrong in just buying one drink.

What is wrong with society today? Is it that businesses want money, but not good customers? But don't customers go with money?

Gillian Morris
Stouffville

CNIB says thanks to volunteers

Dear Editor,
Recently, the CNIB York Region formally recognized the generous contributions of volunteers during National Volunteer Week. We would be hard pressed to continually provide our essential services with quality and timeliness without their dedication. The reality that our staff live with on a day-to-day basis is often overlooked, because of the fine collaboration of a superb volunteer/staff partnership positively effecting the end results. Our agency is constantly faced with cuts in funding, a reflection of our economic climate. We work with a bare minimum staff of eight to provide services to over 1,100 clients.

Our client list is rapidly increasing. Thank you to Ruth Pye, vision rehabilitation nurse; Rosina Zampese, rehabilitation teacher; Jennifer Chamberlain, orientation and mobility instructor; Patricia Chris, employment counsellor; Marion Menezes, administrative secretary; and Debbie Robinson, receptionist/fund development coordinator for your efforts in meeting the needs of our clients, volunteers and community.
Karen Ormerod,
District Manager.
Marva Jeffers,
Advisory Board Chair.
Jodi Herberman, Coordinator,
District Volunteer Services.

Collecting for a cause
Residents dropped off empty beer bottles on the recent Case for a Cure day, and the proceeds went to fund the Canadian Diabetes Association. Shown here are volunteers Marg McConnell, left, and Diana Jupp, right, with helper Stephanie Jupp. Photo/CHERYL JOHNSON

Making the cut

Last Saturday the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum offered a workshop on the German art of paper cutting. Instructor Kathy Johansen, right, gives advice to museum curator Dorie Billick.

Photo/CHERYL JOHNSON

Church Focus

Heritage Singers perform Hallelujah Pepperpot Oct. 26

The Heritage Singers will be at Markham's Centennial Baptist Church on the evening of Oct. 26 to perform their popular Hallelujah Pepperpot show.

The Heritage Singers will perform a Hallelujah Pepperpot at Centennial Baptist Church on Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. The Heritage Singers was formed by the Musical Director, Grace Carter-Henry Lyons, whose folk musical experience began with the Jamaican Folk Singers in her native Jamaica. The 28-member group is a blend of Caribbean, African and Canadian mosaic, drawing it's members from Nova Scotia, Toronto, Barbados, St. Vincent, The Grenadines, Trinidad, Tobago, Guyana, Jamaica, and our own Town of Markham. This group has a long history of performances. With acceptance and acclaim came the responsibility of maintaining a high standard of excellence and they are now an award winning group. They also just returned from participating in the 1996 world wide Sivo Folklorist Festival in Odoorn, Holland. There is an ambience of goodwill that surrounds this group and although the members of the group come from all walks of life and cultures - they share a common love: "That of Raising their Voices in Song and Serving the Community."

Centennial Baptist Church is proud to be presenting the Heritage Singers as they perform Hallelujah Pepperpot. The church is at 8176 McCowan Road, (south of Hwy 7). Tickets are $15 each and are available by calling 475-7695.

All Faiths Welcome!
To Advertise Please Call
Susan O'Brien
294-2200

BETHESDA LUTHERAN CHURCH
20 Union St., Unionville ~ 477-1731
(Near Hwy. 7 & Main)
Sunday School ~ 9:30 a.m.
Worship ~ 10:30 a.m.

MARKHAM MISSIONARY CHURCH
"Because Church is more than a tradition"
10:55 a.m. "Liberated to Give Thanks"
Pastor Thurton
No service this evening - Home Fellowship
Nursery is provided both morning and evening
Ask about our many mid-week programs

Rev. Winston Thurton Senior Pastor
Rev. Blaine Lougheed Associate Pastor

5438 Major Mackenzie Drive East
Markham, Ontario L3P 3J3
(905) 294-5081 (905) 294-5383 (fax)
corner of McCowan and Major Mackenzie
Continuing to focus upon God's Word and Family Life

CENTRAL UNITED CHURCH
131 Main St., Unionville 474-0183
Sunday Service 9:30 a.m. & 11:00 a.m.
"A Different Harvest"
A warm welcome awaits you

Grace Church
Anglican 294-3184
19 Parkway Avenue, Markham
(Parkway Runs East From Hwy. 48)
(3 Stoplights North Of Hwy. 7)
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13TH
NATIONAL THANKSGIVING
8:30 am - Holy Eucharist
10:00 am - Choral Eucharist
THURSDAY
10:00 a.m. - Holy Eucharist
ALL WELCOME
The Rev. Paul G. Walker - Rector
LICENSED NURSERY SCHOOL 294-4920

CENTENNIAL BAPTIST CHURCH
8176 McCowan Rd. (just south of Hwy. #7)
(905) 475-7695
Senior Pastor: Rev. Mark Lowrie

We are a Christain fellowship that cares about you and your family.

11:00 a.m. Thanksgiving Celebration
Communion
Pastor Mark Lowrie

We offer a wide range of mid-week activities for you & your family including:
AWANA Program, Youth Groups, Mens & Ladies Fellowship, Small Groups, Creative Corner and Senior's Ministry.

Home of the
CENTENNIAL CHILD CARE CENTRE
Jr. & Sr. Kindergarten spaces available

You are cordially invited to join us for
MARKHAM CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY CHURCH
Congregation Service at 11 A.M. Sunday

77 Milliken Meadows Drive, Markham, Ontario L3R 0V5
Fax: (905) 479-3062 Tel: (905) 479-3322

Markham Baptist Church
110 Church Street 294.5830
west of Wootton Way, opposite Markham High
An Alphabet of Faith
M is for mancipation, the new men's movement. No gathering around a fire or primitive screams. Our new men's movement is based on the model of manhood found in Jesus Christ.

Sunday Worship at 9:00 & 11:15
Bible School for all ages at 10
A Canadian Baptist Ministries Church