HARVEST FEST '96

Two dances planned to celebrate annual Harvest Fest

Celebrate this year's Harvestfest in Stouffville by attending the festival dance at Latcham Hall Saturday evening from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. The theme is country and the cost is modest, at $15 a couple, with all proceeds going to the Latcham Hall improvement fund. A light buffet will be included in the ticket price, along with the chance to win some nifty door prizes, and a bar will operate throughout the evening.

Younger residents can enjoy the youth dance at the Recreation Complex Friday, Oct. 18 from 7 to 10 p.m. Hosted by the Ice Box youth centre, the dance is open to students in Grade 6 and up. Admission is $5, which includes pop and a snack.

Tickets for both the youth and adult dances are available by calling the Recreation Complex at 640-6527 and will also be on sale at the door.

Enter your gourd

Out of your gourd? Staff at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Library invite you to test your creative skills by entering their Gourd Decorating Contest as part of Harvestfest celebrations Oct. 19. Entries can be crafted using single, double or multiple gourds and awards will be presented in two categories - most creative and most humorous. Submissions will be accepted between now and the 19th at the library during regular hours.
