Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care offers serene setting for pampering, stress relief

Taking the time to relieve some stress is the focus at Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care.

The Hungarian native has been working in the esthetics field for over four years and has experience working in fine salons in Europe. She has been offering her services out of Salon Tres Chic for the last year and a half.

Her trademark is her gentle demeanor and soothing approach to her work which entails everything from facial and body care, electrolysis, threading, waxing and nail care. Ten per cent off is given to all first-time clients for any of the services offered.

"I enjoy doing the work and the fact that I can help make a difference for my clients," Gizella says. "What it comes down to is that I like caring for people and I think this is a terrific business."

Antiseptic surroundings coupled with comforting music set the mood in the private setting in which clients can indulge in focusing on themselves, even if it's just for a short time.

Facial and body care comprise the most tranquil treatments and benefits are immediate, she adds.

A variety of specialty facials are offered including the hydradermic which is a more advanced treatment in which a micro-current is used to increase the penetration and activation of the skin care product.

"In just over an hour the results are spectacular," Gizella emphasizes.

"The sensation is much like massage and puts no stress on the delicate skin of the face which is left perfectly cleansed, radiant and glowing."

In addition, aromatic, renewing and anti-acne treatments are all available and services are provided for every client's individual needs.

Body treatments include ones which focus on the bust, knees and elbows as well as full body-massage, body peeling, anti-cellulite and slimming treatments.

An expert in her field, Gizella has become renowned for thorough work and obliging attitude.

"Not only does she do a fantastic job, it's a real treat to visit her centre because she's an absolute lady," says client, Barbara Allen who found out about Gizella by word of mouth. "She has a calming effect which makes you feel immediately relaxed. She's absolutely lovely."

In addition, products and services are never pushed on a client and the duration of their visit is centred on the work at hand.

Visit Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care located in Salon Tres Chic at 33 The Bridle Trail (at Kennedy Road). To book an appointment or for additional information call 905-940-9723.

Gizella, owner of Gizella's Skin and Beauty Care, performs the deep-cleansing hydradermic facial on a client recently. She also offers full body, esthetic, manicure, pedicure, and electrolysis services.
