

Good start for atom girls

The Taxsave Stars atom girls hockey team is sporting four wins in four starts so far this season, with three of the triumphs coming by shutouts.

The Stouffville girls amassed a total of 30 goals in blanking North York twice in their first two outings as Heather Imrie and Danielle Paterson each picked up a shutout.

At home against Orangeville in game three, the Stars prevailed 5-2 as Christina Davis, Dee Nagymarosi, Christine Hartnoll, Melanie Paterson and Becky Grieve each scored. Assists went to Hartnoll, with two, Davis Paterson, Grieve and Brandy Ferrill. Kate Ross, Kaitlyn Buck, Erin Pappas and Nagymarosi played a solid defence.

Hartnoll's hat trick led the way to a 6-0 win over Brampton to keep the Stars in orbit in game four. Davis with a pair, and Lauren Gainsbrook rounded out the scoring. Paterson earned the shutout. Assists went to Hartnoll, Nagymarosi, Grieve, Paterson and Buck.

Donor returns as president

June Doner will be at the helm once again as the Whitchurch-Stouffville Softball Association (WSSA) looks ahead to another successful season in 1997.

Doner, who has been on the WSSA executive seven years, was reinstated as president at the general meeting Wednesday.

Coming on board as vice-president is Steve Buck, a newcomer to the executive. Gerrie Bolton and Lori Sellers are back for a second year as secretary and treasurer respectively.

The WSSA is coming off a season which saw 89 teams participate in the house-league program.

At the rep level, WSSA teams experienced considerable success, said Doner, pointing in particular to two Provincial Women's Softball Association titlist teams.

"Our rep teams did well this year," she said. "(Coach) Mary Deveaux's midget girls won the Ontario Tier II championship, and (coach) Bill Johnson's novice girls were Ontario Tier II champions. "Three WSSA rep boys teams were Ontario Amateur Softball Association 'B' finalists, including the mites coached by Steve Martin, Ted Assinck's squirt boys squad and Ken Wood's bantam boys crew. Dave Boyd's midgets went as far as the provincial midget 'A' finals.

The meeting, attended by roughly 35 people, was "quiet", said Doner. She said she's looking forward to sitting down with her new executive when it first meets in January.

"I enjoy it. They are nice people to work with"

Junior Spartans cage two victories

It's two down and two to go for the Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS) Spartans junior girls in York Region Athletic Association (Y.R.A.A.) playoff action.

The Spartans advanced to the York semi-finals with a pair of convincing victories earlier this week in zone playdowns.

The SDSS girls got a 28-point effort from Alison Crowder in a 61-49 win over Brother Andre C.H.S. Tuesday at the SDSS gym.

The SDSS crew returned to the home court to bounce St. Elizabeth C.H.S. 55-32 two days later.

Danielle Timms went to the hoop for 18 points against Brother Andre, with Sherry Hartnett adding seven points.

The Spartans led by seven at the half, then roared back in the final quarter after seeing their lead shrivel to a single point in the third period.

Against St. Elizabeth on Thursday, the Spartans took control in the second quarter and never looked back.

Crowder hit for another 15 points, while Lisan Kayum and Hartnett were good for 11 and 10 pints respectively.

"The team all put forth a good effort on offence and defence," praised Spartans head coach Al Piette.
