Watson appointed to fire hall boards

was donating land for the project.

Also, the 31-year old wants to review council's plans to build a fire hall in the north and a new town hall.

"I want to talk to the firefighters. They're the people who use the halls. I'll tell them what they need," he said.

The 31-year-old politician said he's going to meet with town staff to go over the communal water project. "I'd like the costs explained," said Watson.

Also, Watson said he'll find out "what's behind the scene" in regards to the town hall proposal.

"I'm going to find out what the whole sales pitch is. I'm against it. I'm going to find out if I'm all wet or not," said Watson.

Watson was appointed to the fire halls boards for Vandorf and Ballantrae. Meanwhile, he continues as a member of the local environmental advisory committee.

Stouffville's Cliff Moss turning 80

When Cliff Moss, a Stouffville resident and philanthropist, turns 80, there's going to be a party.

Though he says he's up for a roast, the event will be more of a celebration of his 80th birthday.

On Wednesday Jan. 15, at the Holiday Inn, a dinner will be held in Moss' honor to raise money for Participation House, one of his favorite charities.

Tickets cost $50 each and can be purchased through Jill Thompson at 294-0944 or fax 294-7834.

Everyone welcome.
