

Festive Christmas light tour through town enjoyed by local seniors

Close to 100 seniors took part in last week's Seniors Light Tour, hosted by the Stouffville Lions Club. Event organizer Mike Morrison pointed out that the tour was not a small task to organize. "Many Lions volunteered their time to make the event a success," he said. Morrison has extended special recognition to Stock

Transportation. "They volunteered their time and offered us drastically reduced bus rates to make the event possible," he said. The tour involved busing the seniors to view the creative and festive Christmas lights through the streets of Stouffville. This year, eight seniors from the Elm Road apartments took part along with 16 from Testa Villa, 24 from Parkview Village, 11 from Winlane apartments, eight from Buckingham Manor, six from the Silver Jubilee Club as well as 20 seniors from Green Gables. The tour was so successful, club organizers are planning another. "This event has continually increased in size over the years and we are looking forward to bigger and better things for '97," said Morrison.

Fraud charge laid after $9,000 cheque scam

An Aurora woman has been charged with fraud after she allegedly forged an acquaintance's signature on a $9,000 cheque. The 37-year-old then deposited the cheque into her Stouffville account and went Christmas shopping, police said. "She took $2,000 and deposited $7095.67," said Det. Frank Kovacs. "She then had 38

ATM and store receipts between Dec. 7 and Dec. 28." He said the woman had been dating a man, who left the cheque at her place at the beginning of the month. When he realized she had deposited it, he called police. The woman is charged with fraud, uttering a forged document, possession of stolen property and theft over $5,000.

Christmas lunch a great success

The second annual Dec. 25th Christmas lunch, hosted by the Stouffville Country Market, was a resounding success. A total of 350 people enjoyed the traditional Christmas meal, complete with turkey and all the trimmings. Staff and volunteers prepared 15 turkeys. This marked the second year that the local market hosted the event, designed especially for the needy and the lonely.
