Book donations were much appreciated in past year

The holidays are long past but we at the library have a few thank yous to all those Santas who donated gifts of books in 1996.

Many were paperbacks which we look forward to seeing because this is a good way to get duplicates of popular fiction.

This helps those long reserve lists move a bit quicker.

However, this year we began to see donations of non print materials as well. Some books on cassettes and videos have been well received for these popular collections.

Especially exciting is the donation of music in CD format which starts this new collection.

So thank you to all those Santas who made gifts of non-print materials to the library.

Now, for all those people getting ready for the Spring cleaning - let's be optimistic, it's closer than we think - remember the library for donations.

Spring is the time for the library's annual Book Sale and this is a good place to find homes for all those books you've read and no longer need.

Of course, the Book Sale takes a lot of organizing so if you'd like to donate some time, please give us a call.

There's a variety of tasks to be done to organize this event.

call 640-2395 and ask for Marilyn Ferguson. For more information
