YORK REGIONAL POLICE

POLICE OFFICERS

The York Regional Police is seeking highly motivated individuals with demonstrated academic proficiency and physical ability to contribute to our community as a member of one of the leading police agencies in the Province. To qualify, applicants must:

- meet the standards prescribed by the Police Services Act;
- not have been convicted of a criminal offense for which a pardon has not been granted;
- possess a full valid Ontario driver's licence and good driving record.

Qualified applicants will be required to undertake academic, physical fitness, psychological, and medical testing in accordance with the force's standards.

This organization offers a strong professional environment where you can achieve your career potential. Registration will take place at the Tannery Mall, 465 Davis Drive, 2nd Floor, Town of Newmarket on Friday, January 31, 1997 between the hours of 12:00 noon and 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, February 1, 1997 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. A registration form must be submitted with a non-refundable administration fee of $80.25 (includes GST) by cash or money order. The administration fee entitles candidates to participate in academic testing. Candidates who are successful during the academic stage will be required to pay an additional $107.00 (includes GST) to continue in the testing process. Persons who currently have applications on file with York Regional Police will be required to register during the dates specified.

The York Regional Police Supports Equal Opportunity Initiatives.
