

Big Brothers annual Bowl for Kid's Sake event off to a good start

Big Brothers of York is holding its annual Bowl for Kids' Sake campaign at the Stouffville Bowling Centre, 6380 Main St. Feb. 22 from 2 to 4 p.m.

an escape from the RRSP rush and they like that."

Corporations and individuals are invited to field a team to support this excellent cause.

Community day events will be held across the region on Feb. 22, March 1 and 22, with an estimated 1,000 bowlers participating.

This year's campaign has already got off to a wonderful start, with the first of 10 regional events raising more than $30,000, thanks to the efforts of 200 plus bowlers from the banking community of York Region.

All proceeds go to the Big Brothers of York, which provides a variety of programs for young people, including traditional Big Brothers, the Big Bunch and the new In-School Mentoring program, with volunteer opportunities available to women as well as men.

"They proudly wore their Scotia, Royal, Bank of Montreal, CIBC and TD shirts and had a great time while they bowled to help the children in their communities," said event co-ordinator Maddy Nichol. "Even though this is an extremely busy time for bank people, this event provides them with
