UNIONVILLE HOME SOCIETY
is accepting applications for the position of Director of Medical Services

The Unionville Home Society invites applications from qualified physicians for the position of Director of Medical Services with responsibility for all clinical geriatric medical programs for the UHS.

The Unionville Home Society is currently comprised of Union Villa, a non-profit, 162-bed Long Term Care Facility for seniors; Heritage Village, 92 independent-living, rental bungalows; Heritage Center, a multi-purpose older adults center, and Wyndham Gardens, a 122-unit, independent-living, lease-for-life apartment complex. The Society's eighteen-acre property is located on Highway #7 in Unionville, between Kennedy and Warden Avenues. The successful candidate will:

- ♦ be eligible to practice geriatric and internal medicine in Ontario
- ♦ be recognized as an outstanding teacher and leader in all aspects of the care of geriatric disorders
- ♦ demonstrate superior leadership qualities with an ability to recruit, develop and inspire an excellent clinical staff
- ♦ possess superior planning abilities, preferably with administrative experience
- ♦ have a proven record of working effectively with a multi-disciplinary team
- ♦ have excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- ♦ have an awareness of, and the ability to make a significant contribution to the future changing environment in long term care and health services, including the integrated health delivery systems
- ♦ provide strong leadership in UHS' major future development activities over the next six years
- ♦ demonstrate commitment to the Markham/Unionville community.

An appointment will be made by June 15, 1997, with compensation as per Ministry of Health schedule. Applications should be submitted by February 24, 1997, with curriculum vitae to Chair, Board Selection Committee, c/o Donna Barudzija, Vice President, Long Term Care Operations, Unionville Home Society, 4300 Hwy #7, Unionville, Ontario, L3R 1L8.
