Jail-N-Bail fundraiser helps Cancer Society

The Markham/Whitchurch-Stouffville Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society is holding its second annual Jail-N-Bail fundraiser on Tuesday, April 1.

This event takes place in the centre court at Markville Shopping Centre from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Local celebrities, including Stouffville Tribune editor Andrew Mair, will participate in the fundraiser.

"Jailbirds agree to be charged and tried for a fun and fictitious offense under the Jail-N-Bail Act", explained Liz Lightfoot, fundraising chair.

"They cover bail by collecting pledges prior to the event, and on April 1, appear before a judge to plead their case, spend time behind bars, and post bail."

To date, 25 "warrants" have been confirmed, said Lightfoot.

"We really appreciate the support of these local business and professional organizations. We would still like to find more jail-birds," she added.

"Our goal is 50 jailbirds."

Volunteers can contact the Markham/Whitchurch-

Stouffville Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society at 294-5925.

Heart health grants are available

Heart Action York Region is one of five heart health promotion projects in Ontario funded by the Ministry of Health.

The mission of Heart Action in York Region is to promote heart-healthy lifestyle choices for those who live and/or work in the region.

Heart Action, through its community development initiative, will award grants of $500 to community groups, individuals or non-profit organizations interested in providing a heart-healthy program in York Region.

The program should emphasize active living, healthy eating, or being smoke-free. The spring deadline for grant requests is March 3.

For further information and applications for the grants, please contact Heart Action York Region at 836-4744 or 1-800-267-2328.
