MARKHAM'S
Cornell is Coming

Be First in Line When Yesterday Meets Tomorrow.

If you like Main St. Markham and Unionville, you're going to love Cornell! Because Cornell is about to make history with the small-town charm of picket fences, front porches and old-fashioned Main St. shopping, combined with tomorrow's technology. It's a natural extension of the Old Village of Markham set on 1,500 acres of rolling land surrounded by the Rouge Valley Park. The past is about to meet the future. And you can be first in line!
