Junior Spartans ice win in playoff opener

It was nothing more than a light skate as the Stouffville District Secondary School Spartans junior boys' hockey team began their quest for the regional playoff title Tuesday at the Rec Centre.

Richard Cho netted a trio of goals and added two assists to lead the Spartans to a 9-1 win over Vaughan H.S. in a York Region Athletic Association cross over quarter final. Tyler Markle hit for a pair of goals with singles going to Mark Meyer, Brad Johnston, Brad Clubine and Peter Mabley. Meyer also had two assists.

"The boys all played well," said SDSS head coach Bill McKnight. "They're motivated because of last year."

The Spartans were edged by King City H.S. in the 1995-96 YRAA title match.

McKnight said his team is longing for a chance to face last year's victors.

"I think the kids are focussed," said McKnight. "They all want to play King City in the finals."

King City, which placed first in the YRAA western division, must get past Cardinal Carter C.H.S. to advance to the final round.

McKnight said that's not a foregone conclusion. "We think King City will probably be there, but we only beat Cardinal Carter by one goal in the St. Mike's tournament earlier this season so they could give King City a good game."

Before they can get to the finals, however, the Spartans must get past either Huron Hts. S.S. or Holy Cross C.H.S. in a semi-final contest to be played at the Rec Centre at a yet to be determined day this coming week.

The YRAA championship game is scheduled for March 4 in Oak Ridges, a neutral site.

Bruins bear down, ground Wings in recent SAHL hockey action

Gary Carr and Steve Baldon were two-goal men as the Bruins downed the Gallo Real Estate Red Wings 7-4 in Stouffville Amateur Hockey League 20 and over division play Feb. 18 at the Rec Centre.

Greg Tarr, Adam Kennedy and Dave McNaught had the other Bruins goals.

Tim Mullen, Jeff Bower, Ryan Burkholder and Mark Pagnelli responded for the Wings.

Dave Showers netted a pair, and Paul Jarko and Rob Parcells added singles to lift the Ghosts past the Penguins 4-3.

Brian Lemay, Ken Burrows and Frank Blanchet scored for the Pens.

In 30 and over play Feb. 19, Claude Maillet had two goals, and Jim Walker, John Barnett and Tim Lofgren also scored, as the Fullerton Flames downed the Mackenzie Insurance Devils 5-3.

Kelly Burrows, Tim McNeil and Keith McGuckin countered for the Devils.

Brian Henderson, Kevin Bartley, Jamie Dunbar and

Wayne Smith backed up the goalkeeping of Randy Osborne as the Williamson Motors Jets defeated the Boyd's Sports Sharks 4-0.

Richard Downing and Paul Jarko scored for the Flyers, and Terry Porter and Gord Sutcliffe replied for the Hunters Nest North Stars, as the teams tied 2-2.

In 40 and over division action, Bob Saunders had the hat trick and Damian Comito added a pair as the Rand Pools Maple Leafs grounded the Ken May Real Estate Flyers 8-2.

Dennis Loughheed, Steve Dabous and Terry Weatherill had the other Leafs goals. Rick Glen and Wayne Emmer-son had the Flyers goals.

Doug Todd scored three times, and Jim Gray and Wayne McMann counted singles, as the Occasions Blues dethroned the Kings 5-2.

Chester Gengarie and Bruce Mehaffey scored for the Kings.

Howard Burkholder and Blair Emmerson were the marksmen as the B. Phillips Steeplejacks Lightning edged the V.E.C. Enterprise Ducks 2-1.

Gary Husbands had the Ducks goal.

It was Ray Mountjoy and Chris Tancock hitting for the Stouffville Travel Black Hawks, and Herb Forgie and Art Nicholson replying for the Houston Ford Whalers, as the teams tied 2-2.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK DANIEL CAMPITELLI

Daniel is the 1996-97 winner of the Neil Patrick Memorial Trophy, which goes to the leading points scorer in the WSMHA Alom House League Division. Daniel, who is with the Metro Waste team, scored 25 goals, and also had 16 assists for 41 points.

Congratulations Daniel!
