

Stingrays serve up gold

The Stouffville Stingrays I midget girls' volleyball team were the class of a 24-team field as they took the gold at the Midget Girls Tier Qualifier Feb. 22 in Cambridge.

The Stingrays won seven of nine preliminary games to advance to the playoff round, where they took their final six games to win the title. The Stouffville-based squad downed the host Cambridge Hawkeyes 15-10 in the final round.

Arin Bush, Evelyn Kuck, Amanda Crowder, Tori Woods, Megan Bennett and Suzanne Fogg were outstanding throughout the tournament.

It marked the third medal in five tournaments this season for the first year midget outfit.

Local Stars to play at Rec Centre

There'll be local content on display at the Rec Centre tonight as four Stouffville residents take to the ice with the Richmond Hill Stars AAA minor peewee team.

Jordan Mabley, Brad Paterson, Mike Sullivan and Matthew Wright

will be trying to help the Stars get off on the right foot when they begin their playoff series with Barrie on the Stouffville ice surface. The quartet are all former Stouffville Clippers.

Game time is 8 p.m.
