Exciting programs planned for March Break

"The time has come," the Walrus said, "To talk of many things."

-Lewis Carroll

At the library, the time has come to talk of March Break and the four exciting live performances that will be presented here March 11-14:

Tuesday, March 11, 10:30 a.m. - Craig Douglas...Manipulatory Technician.

Craig is a whiz at juggling, unicycling, comedy and other cool stuff. Incredible energy! Fabulous! Wonderful rapport! These are all comments from his previous shows. Need we say more?

Wednesday, March 12, 10:30 a.m. - Little Red Riding Hood.

The Little Red Theatre Group is returning to perform at the library. Everyone can become involved in this classic fairy tale so don't miss the opportunity to join in the adventure, cheer for LRRH and hiss the big bad wolf.

Thursday, March 13, 10:30 a.m. - Deborah Dunleavy in Concert.

Children and grown ups alike will be spellbound by this entertainer's sparkling musical performance. She has been featured on TV and stage presentations and has four award-winning records. This will be a rollicking show so loosen up and get ready for action.

Friday, March 14, 10:30 a.m. - Felicity Falls.

This charming production by the Rag and Bone Puppet Theatre brings the March Break presentations to a gentle conclusion. It features soft-sculptured animals that tell warm, funny stories about getting along together in their woodland home.

Admission to each performance is $2 at the door. A $5 passport for priority entry to all four shows may be pre-purchased at the library. Please call 640-2395 for further information.

Once again, the library gives an exuberant tip-of-the-hat and hearty thanks to the Stouffville Lions Club for its $1,000 donation towards the March Break activities and to the Ontario Arts Council for its financial support.
