The Markham/Whitchurch-Stouffville Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society is holding its second Jail-N-Bail fundraiser on Tuesday, April 1 in the centre court at Markville Shopping Centre from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Fifteen new jailbirds have committed to help the society, including Allan Bell, Pine Apple Inn, Ian Boyd, Boyd's Sports, Tom Brazier, Re/Max All Stars Realty, Anthony Bungaro, Royal LePage, Bill Crothers, York Region Board of Education, Markham Regional Councillor Bill Fisch, John Hawco, Century 21 Armour-Real Estate, Regional Councillor Gord Landon, Markville marketing director Mary Raichinis, Markham Kiwanis Club president Rocco Racioppo, Markham Economist & Sun editor Alan Shackleton, Wayne Watt, North Markham Honda, and June Williamson, Re/Max All Stars Realty.

"Jailbirds will be given prison garb, photographed and locked up in a co-ed cell," said fundraising chair Liz Lightfoot. "Lawyers from the offices of Paul Mingay and Marvin Bongard have agreed to sit in judgement, determining whether the jailbirds have collected enough pledges to post bail."

Volunteers can call the Markham/Whitchurch-Stouffville Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society at 294-5925.

John Paloc

wants to be your

Reform Party Candidate

for a Fresh Start in Markham

Accountability and integrity are important issues in Markham.

Only REFORM has a plan that will allow you to recall your MP.

John Paloc can, and will abide by such a rule even if parliament won't.

As a tax accountant, John is keenly aware of how severely we are being overtaxed. John Paloc will work to roll back the 71 tax increases put in place by the Tories and the 35 tax increases put in since 1993 by the Liberals plus the $10 Billion tax grab from the CPP premium increase.

John's priority is a fair break for students and seniors. Support a taxbuster by supporting John.

Yes, I want to help John get nominated.
