Stingrays downed in quarter-finals

The Stouffville Stingrays bantam girls ended the season by going as far as the quarter finals at the Tier 1 Bantam Girls' Provincial Championships March 1 in Brampton.

The Stingrays swept five of six games in the preliminary round robin to advance to the quarter finals.

But they came up just short against the Georgetown Selects, falling 17-16 and 15-10. "We had an excellent tournament but unfortunately came up a little short against Georgetown," said coach Don Forbes.

Forbes praised his team for a solid effort in the provincial showdown.

"All our starters played well, as well as those who came off the bench."

He pointed to the work of Abi Barnett, Meaghan Crowder, Jessica Clayson, Ashlyn Greenslade, Andrea Grand, Lisa Jacque, Joanne Crymble, Colleen Cooke and Shannon Allen.

"We all enjoyed the volleyball season playing in the best bantam clubs in Ontario," said Forbes.

Forbes said the team plans to hold tryouts for next season's team in April or May for girls in Grade 7 or 8 next September.

DON VALLEY NORTH LEXUS - TOYOTA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

MORGAN CLARKE

In a recent Markham Synchro Club Invitational Swim meet (Feb. 8-9), Morgan Clarke swam her way to gold and silver medals. Her gold success was achieved with and shared by her duet partner, Alissa Sadler. Her silver victory was achieved with the artistic and technical results of her fellow team members: Lindsay Holung, Brittany Linton, Vanessa Novello and Alissa Sadler. This grade 5 student at William Berczy P.S. earned these awards under the coaching of Laurie Mitchell.
