Luxurbath Enterprises leads the way in bathroom remodeling.

Quality workmanship is key

Luxurbath allows clients to shop-at-home for all bathroom needs

In today's rapidly growing renovation industry, bathrooms and kitchens have become the most critical projects for home resale and personal pleasure.

As part of Luxurbath's service, garbage is removed from the home and follow-up calls are made to insure the clients are completely satisfied.

The demand for a qualified professionals has increased substantially. Unfortunately, this has created many so-called fly-by-night contractors, which ends up turning your renovation dreams into nightmares, says Mike Vurro who owns Luxurbath Enterprises with his father Joe.

Because of Luxurbath's buying power, they offer many renovation packages such as a complete shower stall including the removal of the existing shower stall and base, a new Moen tapset, shower drain, pan line and cement base, 6x8 ceramic tiles, 2x2 mosaic floor tiles, a ceramic corner shelf, marble jambs, Durock and water resistant drywall, all plumbing labor and materials for $1950.

At Luxurbath you can rest assured that you're bathroom and kitchen renovation will be a pleasurable experience, says Vurro. With a combined experience of 39 years, they have the capability to tackle any project promptly, efficiently and most of all - affordably.

With the Tub Enclosure Special, Luxurbath removes the existing tub, taps and area walls and replaces them with a new enamel steel tub and drain assembly, Moen tub taps, Durock and water resistant drywall, 6x8 ceramic tiles, corner shelf and tension bar. The bathroom will be completely sealed and water tight. The price - $1450.

Luxurbath provides a convenient shop-at-home service that allows clients to visualize color selection in the home's actual lighting instead of what looks good in a fancy showroom.

All work is backed by a full six-year limited warranty. "Serving the Markham and surrounding region for many years, references are available to you from many satisfied customers."

This also keeps overhead costs down and savings are passed on to the client. "With all the selections out there, I know how hard it can be for people to choose products to suit their needs. That is why we have a close one-on-one relationship with our valued customers, giving them advice every step of the way."

"Our reputation has been built on quality workmanship and the fact that when we quote a price we stick to it. There are no hidden costs and no last minute surprises," says Mike Vurro owner of Luxurbath.

"Unlike franchises, with Luxurbath you can be sure that the person who spent the time with you designing your bathroom and kitchen will be the one that will remodel and answer questions without tracking back to the salesperson. In this case those people are the owners and qualified staff."
