Health Council seeks volunteer

York Region District Health Council is recruiting new candidates to fill a volunteer "consumer" position on the council. The DHC advises the minister of health regarding health needs and the allocation of health resources for effective and economic delivery of health services in York Region.

A "consumer" is any individual who may receive or is receiving health services, and who does not directly or indirectly earn her/his living from the provision of health or social services. Interested applicants should live in the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville, have a genuine interest in planning and co-ordinating health services, good communication skills, and demonstrated sound judgement. You should be able to devote approximately six to eight hours per month to the position.

For an information package and application form contact the District Health Council office at 1091 Gorham Street, Suite 300, Newmarket, Ontario, L3Y 7V1, or call (905) 830-9899 or 363-5288 (Toronto Line). Completed applications should be submitted to the above address by Monday, April 14.
