Playoff action heating up in SAHL's 40 and over division

Doug Todd was in playoff form Sunday at the Rec Centre, scoring three times to lead the Occasions Catering Blues to a 6-3 win over the Rand Pools Maple Leafs in the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League 40 and over division post season opener.

Graham Williams had a goal and two assists, with Randy Lee and Dave Tucker the other Blues marksmen. Norm Dunn was the playmaker with three set ups. Bob Saunders, Terry Weatherill and Mark Milne scored for the Leafs.

Jack Holder netted a pair, to go with singles by Murray Thompson, Wayne Emmerson and Paul Robinson as the Houston Ford Flyers downed the S. Phillips Steeplejacks Lightning 5-3. Blair Emmerson clicked twice for the Lightning, with Andy Kroen scoring as well. Frank Wildman had two assists for the Flyers. Howard Burkholder set up two Lightning goals.

Art Nicholson picked up a goal and an assist to help the Ken May Real Estate Whalers to win a 3-2 win over the V.E.C. Enterprise Ducks. Bill Hermanson and Gord

Smith also scored for the Whalers, with Garth Bell and Bill Ormson replying for the Ducks.

Ron Martyn, Ed Dennis and Bob McKinnon were the marksmen as the Stouffville Travel Black Hawks nipped the Kings 3-2. Jim Warner had two set ups for the winners. Bruce Mehaffey and Matt Hawkins lit the lamp for the Kings.

Meanwhile, the league's 30 and over division wound down the regular season Wednesday (March 26) as Brent Stachel broke loose for two goals and three assists to give the Hunters Nest North Stars a 7-4 victory over the Flyers. Scott Dunsmoor scored twice for the Stars, with singles going to Gord Sutcliffe, Rob Campitelli and Dave Raymer. Paul Jarko and Dan Maillet each scored twice for the Flyers, with Dave Mehaffey setting up three goals, and Maillet two. Naz Nicastro clicked twice, and Keith McGuckin, Ross Geiger and Bob Smith scored as well, as the Mackenzie Insurance Devils defeated the Williamson Motors Jets 5-1. Scott Connor replied for the Jets.

The Fullerton Flames got goals from Claude Maillet, Mike Briggs, Steve Schell, Jim Jones and Doug Joyce in a 5-3 triumph over the Boyd's Source for Sports Sharks. Kevin McGuckin, Brad Stevens and Gary Carr had the Sharks goals.

In the final day of 20 and over division regular season play, Trevor Kennedy and Keith Jupp each had hat tricks, and Dave Showers scored twice, to power the Ghosts to an 8-1 win over the Penguins. Paul Jarko had three assists for the Ghosts. Don Forbes had the Pens goal.

Jody Infurnari had a pair, and Gary Carr a solo as the Bruins tied the Gallo Real Estate Red Wings 3-3. Ryan Burkholder, Tom Hammond and Mark Paganelli scored for the Wings.

Normandeau on champion Clippers

A story on the Timmy Tyke champion Stouffville Birkett and Hassard/G&H Contracting minor novice Clippers in the March 29 edition left out the name of player Christopher Normandeau. He is on the team and even scored the second goal in Stouffville's win. The Tribune apologizes for the error.
