

Charity game won by local lads

The fifth annual Challenge Cup presented a minimal challenge to the Stouffville All Ontario Clippers Saturday night at the Rec Centre in Stouffville.

The host squad romped to an 8-1 win over the Uxbridge Bruins Alumni, keeping their perfect record intact in Challenge Cup competition.

The Clippers got a three goal performance by Spirit of Stouffville head coach Dan Larmer. Larmer, a former college and minor pro player, scored to tie the game at 1-1 after Jamie Showers opened the scoring for the Bruins with a low blast from the right point. Larmer then converted a pass out from behind the net by team mate John McKinnon to put the Stouffville squad ahead to stay a few minutes later. Darren Hardy and Jason Reesor clicked in the second period to put the Clippers up 4-1. Tim McNeil, Ryan Burkholder, Larmer and Shawn Leonard rounded out the scoring for Stouffville in the third.

The game, played annually in memory of former Bruin and Clipper Dan McNeil, was a fund raiser for the Children's Wish Foundation. Jason Collins was on hand to represent the Foundation, with the youngster dropping the opening faceoff between Reesor of the Clippers and Jason Underwood of the Bruins. The pre-game ceremonies also saw Evan Cain of the Bouwmeister Landscaping midget Clippers presented with the Dan McNeil Memorial Trophy. The

Bradley not running

Councillor Ivanka Bradley will not seek re-election in the fall for Ward 1.

While Councillors Judy Scala, Cliff Dunkeld and Mark Kostandoff each told The Tribune, they'd seek re-election in their perspective wards and Councillor Mike Watson will likely seek re-election in the November municipal election, Bradley is taking a different route. Bradley told The Tribune that she's decided against running for the ward seat after much soul searching.

"I've tried to work hard for Ward 1 and for all of Whitchurch-Stouffville, but for the past year, motions presented by me have not been well received by the rest of council. I never lost sight of the fact that my first obligation is to the people. My goal was to be effective and in particular, results orientated. The results of my efforts over the past 12 months clearly indicate that I have not succeeded to the degree that the people deserve," said Bradley.

While Bradley's name will not appear on the Ward 1 ballot, she, like most politicians, knows when to say "never say never."—Bradley would neither confirm nor deny that she's got her eye on the mayor's job. "Time will tell," said Bradley.

award goes annually to the Stouffville rep players best exemplifying leadership and sportsmanship qualities.
