

Music Mania excitement begins on Thursday night

MUSIC MANIA

Get ready...there's a train a-comin' and tickets are disappearing fast. Mystery Aboard the Heritage Express, this year's Music Mania presentation, takes place Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Stouffville District Secondary School.

Even the most determined beaver could not derail this wonderful evening of music, dance and comedy, produced and performed by the usual local suspects, along with some newly recruited talent. Mystery on the Heritage Express runs April 24, 25 and 26 and tickets are available from The Tribune and Card's Hardware at $10 for adults and $4 for children.

Each ticket comes with a ballot to fill out and deposit at the show for a chance to win $500 worth of coupons, goods and services from local merchants.

But hurry to buy your ticket, or you'll miss the train.

SACRED MUSIC

Everyone is invited to attend the 27th annual Sacred Music Night at St. James Presbyterian Church on Friday, May 2 at 8 p.m.

The focus is on youth and a strong contingent of local talent will be featured during the evening including The St. James Children's Choir; vocal soloists Sarah Blenkhorn, April Yakeley, Kara Prost and Helen Lewis; flutist Julie Hazlewood; pianists Melissa McElroy and Peggy Atkinson and trombonist David Roe. Duet selections will be presented by Kerry Boyd and Stewart McElroy and Carol Hopkins and Sheryl Wideman. The Harmony Four Quartet from Brampton will close the musical portion of the evening, with refreshments served following the program.

GALLERY TRIP

The Latcham Gallery is offering a Mothers and Others trip to the McMichael Gallery in Kleinberg on May 10 which includes transportation, admission, a guided tour and lunch, as well as time for individual browsing. Registrations must be received by May 1 and the cost is $20 for members; $30 for non-members, plus G.S.T. To register, or for information, call 640-2395.

A reminder that the gallery will be the venue for this year's Giant Book Sale, which takes place May 8 to 11. Anyone who would like to donate books can drop them off at the library or call 640-2395 for pick-up. All proceeds go to the library.

YDHRA AUCTION

The York-Durham Heritage Railway Association is seeking donations of articles in good condition for a fund-raising auction to be held at 6 p.m. on May 23 at Gary Hill Auctions on Davis Drive.

Furniture, musical instruments, glass, china, small appliances, tools and other household items will be much appreciated and volunteers will provide a pick-up service for all donations. Gary Hill has generously donated the use of his property and his time, with all proceeds going to YDHRA. For pick-up, call 640-5132 or 640-6613.

STUDENTS HONORED

Two local students were honored at the recent annual Humber College Awards' Night ceremony. Paul Bouwmiester received the Rose Cunha Leadership Award, which recognizes above average academic and clinical achievement and exemplary leadership skills in academic and clinical settings. Christine Maggs won the Narvali Photography Limited Award, which is presented to the student who submits the best 8x10 color transparency in the photography program. She also received the Steichen Lab Portfolio Award for best overall color transparency portfolio.
