

Main St. Unionville to transform into Caboto Trail soon

By CHRIS KEUKEN
Correspondent

Five-hundred years ago, Newfoundland was discovered by Giovanni Caboto, better known as John Cabot. In commemoration of the event, Unionville will transform its Main Street into the Caboto Trail as part of the Metro International Caravan.

May 7th will be the kick off for the celebration at the Veterans Hall, 150 Main St. Unionville between 6:15 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The event will feature traditional music and food from Italy and the Maritimes. There will also be an unveiling of the first of ten murals depicting life in Newfoundland and Italy. Main Street's transformation will take place between June 13 - 21. It will be a nine day event involving Unionville's entire BIA. Stores will be decorated in either of the two cultures' style, and the restaurants will feature Maritime and Italian cuisine. There will also be entertainment acts at various locations throughout the street, as well as roving musicians and historical figures from both cultures.

"This is a once in a lifetime thing," Jane Simard said. "This is meant to celebrate the 500th anniversary of Newfoundland's discovery."

Organizers are still looking for volunteers to help with the workload and entertainers with an Italian or Maritime flavor. Volunteers can contact Karin Christopher at (416) 412-3407, and entertainers Tony Murphy at (905) 477-2375.

Caravan passports are also available at many of the Main St. businesses, and are good for all Caravan events over the nine days.
