HAPPENINGS AT SDSS
 May is a busy month at Stouffville District Secondary School. The fourth annual fashion show, 'Flirting with Fashion,' takes place May 15 at 7:30 p.m. and features 20 student models and clothing from a number of area stores including The Gap, La Senza and Thrifty's, and everyone in the community is welcome to attend. Tickets are five dollars with children under 10 admitted free, and refreshments will be served.

May 21 is the opening reception for 'Images '97,' an exhibition of artwork by senior students, which takes place at The Latham Gallery. Print making, sculpture, painting and graphics will be included in the show, which runs May 18 to June 1. The reception will be held from 7 to 9 p.m., with participating students in attendance. Community residents are also welcome at the Spring Music Concert, which takes place May 20 at 7:30 p.m.

For more information call 640-1433.

READERS REAP REWARDS

Five students from Stouffville Christian School's junior kindergarten class, who completed an interactive reading program sponsored by Pizza Hut Canada, were rewarded with a free pizza lunch at the chain's Hwy 7/McCowan Rd. outlet last month.

The children, who were accompanied by their teacher, Ann Carter, had successfully completed their reading goals in all five months of the Book It! program, which encompasses interactive reading with parents, grandparents and siblings. The successful readers were Aiden de Jong, Colton Wideman, Dylan Shankland, Joshua Whitehead and Jacinth Lattiboudeaire. The name of each student has been entered on the Readers' Honour Roll, which is a permanent classroom record of achievement.

MOTUS O IN DANCE SERIES

Stouffville dance collective Motus O returns to the stage of Markham Theatre for the fourth time in the fall dance series Nov. 14. Delusions, a new work partially sponsored by the theatre, is an in-depth exploration of hopes, dreams and realities, set against human relationships, truth and delusions in the unsettling world of the late 20th century.

For more information on the dance series, call 305-7469.
