

Suspect in home invasion robbery appears in mid-May

A Downsview man facing criminal charges in connection with a home invasion and the kidnapping of a Gornley store owner will make his third court in mid-May. Last week, a Newmarket judge ordered Sohail Syed Razvi, 20, to return to his court for a pre-trial on May

15. York Regional Police continue to seek two more suspects in connection with the crime. Razvi has been charged with robbery, disguise with intent and forcible confinement. He was released on bail on March 5th on a $15,000 assurity. Sgt. John Sheldon reported that on Feb. 12th, the owner of MIS Variety was approached in the parking lot

Courts
after closing his Gornley store. The store owner was forced into the vehicle at gun point and driven to his residency on Bayview Ave in the Elgin Mills area about 15 minutes from the store. Once at the home, two of the suspects entered the house, confronted the man's wife, showed her the gun, and her husband's drivers licence and threatened to kill him if she didn't cooperate. The woman handed over $5,000 in cash. She was then handcuffed to the refrigerator, the telephone lines were cut and the master bedroom ransacked. The suspects fled in a getaway vehicle.
