

Council on Aging seeks volunteers of all ages

The Council on Aging for York Region is seeking volunteer members from the public to serve as senior consumer representatives.

Current members of the COA include senior consumers, staff and administrators of agencies serving senior citizens and representatives from the government and planning bodies. The council's mission is to evaluate, encourage and advocate enriched and independent living for older adults in York Region. The council believes it has a role to:

- advise the Regional Municipality of York, other levels of government and the community at large;
- plan services for senior citizens in York Region;
- educate elected officials, service providers, consumers and the public about older adults' needs and wants;
- advocate on behalf of seniors.

Any older adult residing in York Region is invited to apply to represent senior consumers on the council. Individuals under 55 years of age who have a special interest in issues related to seniors are also invited to apply.

Application forms can be obtained writing to the Council on Aging for York Region c/o Health Services Department, The Regional Municipality of York, 194 Eagle St., Newmarket, Ont., L3Y 1J6 or call (905) 895-2381 (905) 773-6404 ext. 256.
