Library book sale brings out bargains for all book lovers

If you're sitting with your morning coffee and the local newspaper, setting up a schedule of yard sales to find, don't forget to add the Library Book Sale to your schedule. You've seen the picture in the paper, now come in for the real thing. See stacks of books. Pick up on some great sales and stock up for cottage time. In fact, there is so much to choose from you could get practically a year's worth of books.

The hours for the weekend are: Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday 12 noon to 4 p.m. So don't miss this major event. It will be another year before it comes to town again.

LIBRARY NEWS

Of course, a hot item you won't find at the sale is the Community of Stouffville Secondary Plan. This is the document to look at to keep up with all the meetings happening in town. At the moment, there is one Reference copy, which stays in house, and a second copy being processed for a one week loan. Put your name on the list for this important study. Take a look at what they say about 'Community Structure' and 'Community Character Strategy.'

Then, if you'd like to type up a letter, or resume, or poem! don't forget that the library has a personal computer for public use. Sign up at the front desk for an hour or two. It's a good way to work on your keyboarding skills or teach yourself WordPerfect.

So drop into the library. It's one of the hot spots this week.
