"WE HAVE TO WORK TOGETHER"

"Dancers for Harmony takes dances from different cultures to churches and organizations to show how we have to work together in the community. I get to do two of my favourite things, dance and help at the same time."

Raju Bains: Grade 8,
Parkland Public School
Wilcay Public School

Raju, Students' Council president and honours scholar, is active in the total life of her school. She is the student representative on and vice-chair of Parkland's Parent Advisory Council.

"I LIKE BEING INVOLVED"

"I started a pride group at Parkland because I wanted to help people realize what we have and to encourage school spirit. I like being involved and having the whole school being together. But my main focus is my education, more than anything else."

Tricia Wynn: OAC,
Middlefield Collegiate Institute
Armadae and Franklin Street Public Schools

Tricia, a popular, productive and athletic student, was chosen as president of Students Council and 1996 class valedictorian in her Grade 12 year. As a 1997 graduate, Tricia endows MCI with her vision and optimism.

"BE A WELL-ROUNDED PERSON"

"As council president I found that I love to be involved. I learned a lot about myself, and my motto is that you can't just complain about something without having done anything about it. It's important to try to be a well-rounded person."

Sharon Shin: OAC,
Milliken Mills High School
Randall and Aldergrove Public Schools

Sharon is an outstanding scholar, leader and athlete. Besides her many school and community activities, Sharon serves as a student trustee on the York Region Board of Education.

"ON THE RIGHT TRACK"

"Through activities like the swim team, I get to meet people from all different backgrounds. It's fun to see different aspects of life, and I'm learning how to be independent. I feel really happy, so I know I'm on the right track."
