Activist Doris Anderson to speak at YRAP auction

Well known author, editor and activist Doris Anderson will be the guest speaker at a luncheon hosted by York Region Abuse Program (YRAP). The luncheon and silent auction will take place on Wednesday June 25, 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Le Parc, 8432 Leslie Street, Thornhill. All proceeds from this event will go to help YRAP continue to work toward ending all forms of child abuse.

Doris Anderson was editor for Chatelaine Magazine for 20 years where she established the magazine as a leading voice for Canadian feminism in the 1960s and 1970s. In 1979 she became President of the Canadian Advisory Council on the Status of Women in Ottawa. Her resignation in 1980 sparked what became known as the "Ad Hoc" conference, and resulted in an entirely new clause in Canada's Charter of Rights that confirmed the equality of women and men.

York Region Abuse Program (YRAP), established in 1987, provides leadership throughout all communities in York Region to eliminate child abuse through group therapy programs, group therapist training programs, court support programs, abuse prevention programs and volunteer programs. YRAP offers the only child sexual abuse group therapy program available without charge in York Region.

For tickets or further information, please call Marian Dozell, Fundraising Coordinator for YRAP at (905) 853-3040.
