

Regional housing group hosts annual general meeting

Transitional and Supportive Housing Services of York Region will hold its annual general meeting next month in Aurora.

The association offers four services for the people of the region in need of a transitional residence or help with housing.

These services are Leeder Place, an emergency shelter for families; Porter Place, a hostel for homeless men; Lakeview Place, a home for special care; and Burns Place, a residential program for adolescent males. Members of the community are invited to attend the general meeting.

It takes place at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, June 26 at the agency's offices. The agency is located at 18838 Hwy. 11. Those wishing to attend are asked to please R.S.V.P. by calling 898-1015.
