

Library benefits from $5,600 raised at book sale

After expenses have been met, Whitchurch-Stouffville Library expects to make a clear profit of at least $5,600 from its recent giant book sale, said library CEO Marilyn Ferguson.

"We made $5,071 last year, so we've come out well ahead."

Staff and volunteers were delighted with the positive feedback from visitors and people in the community who attended, she added.

All proceeds go to the library.

CINDERELLA AT MARKHAM THEATRE

The 14th annual DanceCentre recital, Showcase '97 and Cinderella, will be performed at 7:30 p.m. June 2 and 3 at Markham Theatre.

The first half of the program features a selection of ballet, tap and modern numbers by younger members of the studio, as well as two performances by the acclaimed Youth Company.

Cinderella, a one-hour production of the beloved fairy tale featuring 65 older students, follows the intermission.

Principal dancers include Kristy Kennedy as Cinderella, Stephanie Green as her stepmother, Sarah Hurrell and Stephanie Watson as the stepsisters, Julie Kerswill as the fairy godmother and Jaime Wagg as the prince.

Choreographed by DanceCentre director Michele Green, this promises to be a memorable performance which will appeal to all ages.

Tickets are $12 each and can be purchased from the theatre box office (305-7469), or the DanceCentre (640-6082).

A special matinee performance will be held for York Region schools on June 3, with all proceeds going to the Unionville High School music department.

Students from Orchard Park and Whitchurch-Highlands public schools will be among those attending this fund-raising event.
