ATTENTION ROMAN CATHOLICS
 The movement for renewal is spreading across the globe. More than 2.3 million Catholics have signed petitions calling for needed reforms. With 2/3 to 3/4 of baptized Catholics no longer active, dialogue on these issues is essential.
OUR VISION OF A RENEWED CHURCH INCLUDES:
 1. A Church that mirrors the compassion of Jesus in dealing with all people, especially those who are broken and alienated;
 2. Increased ecumenical and interfaith action on behalf of social justice, non-violence and the preservation of the earth;
 3. An all-pervading atmosphere of freedom among the people of God;
 - freedom for theologians to research, publish and teach without censure,
 - freedom to inform and follow one's conscience,
 - freedom for priests to be celibate or to marry,
 - freedom from discrimination based on sexual orientation
 - freedom of access to the Sacraments by divorced and remarried Catholics
 4. Extensive consultation with the Catholic people in developing Catholic teaching on human sexuality;
 5. The opening of all Church ministries and decision-making bodies to the gifts of all the faithful, including women;
 6. The collegial participation of the people of a Diocese in the selection of their Bishop
