VARLEY

~ A Celebration ~
31 May, 1997

- 4 A Gallery Whose Time Has Come
The Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery of Markham is home to a wonderful collection that reflects the life story of a Canadian icon.
- 6 The Man, The Legend
F.H. Varley was a pioneer in the way he captured the human form and the beauty and ruggedness of the landscape in his art.
- 8 Programs
There will be something for the entire family at the new art gallery. See what's in store.
- 10 A Passion for Paint
Kathleen Gormley McKay was an inspiration for Varley's genius. They became the best of friends.

An Invitation

Be part of history. The new Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery of Markham Grand Opening will be held on Saturday, May 31, 1997 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The festivities start at 11 a.m. with a ribbon-cutting ceremony with Markham Mayor Don Cousens and other invited guests, including television personality Kate Wheeler. Admission to the gallery and activities will be free all day. Celebrations include: music provided by the Non-Affiliated Big Band, mime artists, face-painting, art demonstrations, commemorative banner signing and arts and crafts for all ages. The Kathleen Gormley Art Centre will also feature a student art exhibition. The gallery is located at 216 Main Street in Unionville. Telephone (905) 477-9511.
