Atom Egoyan's Cannes-winning film contains scenes from Cedar Beach

Portions of 'The Sweet Hereafter,' Atom Egoyan's award-winning movie which took the Cannes Film Festival by storm last month, were filmed at the Cedar Beach pavilion on Musselman's Lake, park owner Vern Davies told The Tribune.

The crew also asked if they would be willing to use their tractor to demolish a bus for the movie.

"They were filming here for about two weeks and the bus that was used for the accident scene was destroyed by our back-hoe," he said.

The Davies' were not contacted about their location in advance, said his wife, Audrey. "(The film crew) just walked in and said they wanted to film. They were also in the dance hall, using it as a court room."

Life at the park was not disrupted by their unexpected visitors, she added. "They were in and out of here for two weeks, but we really didn't see much of them."

TOURNAMENT CANCELLED

The mini golf tournament to benefit Stouffville District Secondary School's music department has been cancelled.

The event was to have been held Thursday at Timber Creek Golf on Ninth Line, but organizers decided not to go ahead because of poor ticket sales.

FUNDS RAISED FOR RAILWAY

The York-Durham Heritage Railway Association raised $2,190.50 on Friday, May 23 at the Phoenix Auction Barn on Davis Dr.

Although the turnout was not as great as organizers had hoped, those who did attend came away with some fantastic bargains.

The remaining items will be stored until later in the summer, when they will likely be sold at a fundraising garage sale for the railway.

WALK FOR LEUKEMIA SUNDAY

Everyone is invited to participate in the United Food and Commercial Workers' annual Leukemia Walk for a Cure, which takes place at 11 a.m. June 8 from the Recreation Centre.

For more information call Marilyn Newton at 640-5537.

M & M CHARITY BBQ

Stouffville's M & M Meats joins more than 200 stores across Canada for the ninth annual Charity Barbecue Day in support of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of Canada on Saturday, June 14.

The biggest single fundraiser for CCFC, the barbecue will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For $2, patrons can purchase a hamburger or hot dog, a drink and a bag of chips, with all proceeds going directly to the charity.

"Charity Barbecue Day raises awareness among the general public about inflammatory bowel disease and allows those who suffer from these diseases the confidence to come forward to discuss their condition," said Michael Howorth, national executive director for CCFC.

CRUISE-IN DRAWS BIG CROWD

More than 40 classic and modern cars were on display May 23 outside the local Canadian Tire store for Cruise-In '97, said manager Bruce MacKenzie, who was delighted by the large turnout of participants and visitors who attended the event.

"We had vehicles from the '20s to the '90s and it was a really great evening."

Race driver Peter Gibbons attended with his 1997 Cascar racer and prizes were awarded to the top 10 entrants.
