

Museum celebrates 26 years

All are invited to the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum on Sunday, June 8 from 1p.m. to 4 p.m. for its Anniversary Garden Party and Open House. The museum will be celebrating its 26th anniversary and there will be free birthday cake for all visitors. Its latest exhibit, 19th Century Nightlife, as well as the restored buildings will be open for tour. There will also be ongoing heritage demonstrations throughout the afternoon.

DADS ~ PLEASE ADOPT ME

I'm in need of a good home. Be my new parent and I promise...

- I never spit up oil
- I never eat fabric
- I never get cranky
- You can turn me off when you're tired
- I come with complete instructions
- My 10 year warranty protects you from those "terrible two's"
- I don't do windows, but my slender arm can do cuffs and knees; plus my six-point "feet" system and strong, "motorized" heart allows me to do silky, stretch and even leather
- My name is Husky 1977 and in honour of Father's Day, I can be adopted for ONLY $399.00. Sug. retail $599.00.

Thanks, Dad. I'll be the perfect family addition.

Please Hurry. This Special Adoption Rate Is Only Good Through Father's Day June 15th.

HOME SICK: Sara Altimari, right, takes advantage of the beautiful weather last Wednesday, even though she was home from school with the chicken pox. Her mother Maryellen was treating her to picnic lunch.
