Emmerson to seek re-election

■ From page 1 ■

Marshall said plans regarding her political future will not be made until the end of the summer

Also filing papers last week to indicate an intent to seek re-election is Ward 5 Councillor Judy Scala.

Meanwhile, Whitchurch-Stouffville mayor Wayne Emmerson is expected to file the appropriate papers, very soon. Months ago, Emmerson announced that he's seeking a second term as mayor.

Dobrich comes to the election campaign with both political and community experience.

He's been a member of Whitchurch-Stouffville Council for three years. Dobrich is past president of the Preston Lake Ratepayers and current president of Pride and Preston Lake Inc.

Married to Ann, the couple have three grown children and one grandchild.

Public opinion sought on town planning

■ From page 1 ■

Secondary plan this month, the residents' association stressed that more time was needed "in order to give residents more time to review and comment on the Secondary Plan.

A Secondary Plan is a guideline outlining what goes where when local government deals with planning matters.

Both association meetings will be held at the Stouffville Missionary Church at 6500 Main Street, beginning at 7 p.m.

Meanwhile, local council will host a special public meeting to deal with the plan in mid-September.

Major is also inviting more people to join the residents' association. For more information call 640-8538.

Food network hosts meeting

The York Region Food Network will be holding its Annual General Meeting on Thursday, June 12.

Executive member Jane Wedlock will give a brief overview of where the food network is headed. Reports on the year's activities will be submitted along with financial statements and election of new executive members.

Awards will also be presented to volunteers who have made outstanding contributions, especially in the area of Community Gardens and The Good Food Box.

All are welcome to attend the meeting in the Founders' Room of the Aurora United Church, at 15186 Yonge St., Aurora, commencing at 8 p.m.

For more information or to R.S.V.P., please call the network number at 773-9866 and leave a message.
