

Heritage railway takes residents to Uxbridge gardens

Some of Uxbridge's finest gardens will be on public display July 5 during Uxbridge Community Care's "Gardens of Uxbridge" tour.

Seven township gardens are featured on the tour, a Community Care fundraiser.

Stouffville residents are invited to make a day of it. Community Care volunteer drivers will meet the incoming York-Durham Heritage Railway at 11:45 a.m. to provide transportation to any travellers who want to see the "Gardens of Uxbridge."

The drivers will have the train travellers back to catch the last train to Stouffville at 3 p.m.

Tickets are $10 and will be available after

June 13 at Blue Heron Books, Quaker Pharmacy, Toronto Street Pharmacy or at the Community Care office, 75 Marietta Street.

Light refreshments will be available at the Uxbridge Seniors Centre throughout the afternoon for those who take the tour.

For more information call 852-7445.

WHAT A CARD: Emily Foley gets a charge out of fellow bridge players Raymond Rioux, John Nagy and Art Verbaan at the Silver Jubilee Club on Main St. Wednesday afternoon. The seniors hold bridge games every Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m. Refreshments are served and all ages are welcome.
