

Future council meetings to be held at area church

Future local council meetings will be held at the Stouffville Missionary Church.

On Monday, the Main Street location was the choice of council following a review of four spots. Council rejected the Christian Blind Mission, the town-owned Latham Hall and Whitchurch Centennial Community Centre.

Cost of the rental at the Stouffville Missionary Church is $75 a night.

A new municipal meeting place was required after public meetings at the municipal office were halted because of a concern about the condition of the Civic Centre building.

Six weeks ago, staff reported that the municipal office was in such poor shape it posed a safety threat.

The repair bill could go as high as $700,000. Meanwhile, Council ordered $37,000 worth of emergency repairs. The work is being carried out now.

Council has yet to decide if a $3.4 million town-hall library complex will be built.
