Museum contest winners know their history

What is it?
Strawberry Festival party goers were stumped by those very words during the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum's What Is It contest?

Since 1992, the museum has brought unusual items from its collection to the Strawberry Festival, offering prizes to those able to identify them.

"To be honest, sometimes we don't know what it was used for," said the museum's curator Dorie Billich.
"That happened this year, with a wine warmer."

As it turns out, a wine warmer is a wire basket, which fits over the bottle to keep it warm.

"This year, we gave out passes to our events," said Billich.

First place in the adult category went to Aylmer Hood, who received a family pass to the Museum's Candlelight Christmas Tour. The runner up R. Reid, won a family pass to the 24 Annual Antique and Classic Car Show in August.

The winner in the youth category was Patrick Salvagna, winning a family pass to the Hands-On Heritage Fall Fair.
