

Birth support service seeks volunteers

Choices Childbirth Education and Labour Support Services is a non-profit organization that provides choice-based prenatal education, professional labour support, postpartum support and crisis counseling on issues related to childbirth.

Choices provides services in Durham and York regions.

The group is looking for volunteers that are community minded and have an interest in childbearing issues. Volunteers are needed for duties such as community events, special events planning and much more.

If you would like further information please call 905-420-0223 or 416-293-4450.

Join A Growing Industry!

Our new Call Centre Operations program may be for you (or someone you know).

Join our one-year program—with paid co-op work experience—designed to get you employed in one of the fastest-growing sectors in North America. Employer demand for graduates is high—starting salaries are reported at $25-30,000. This booming industry offers many advancement opportunities.

Call centre agents use a blend of computer skills, communications and product knowledge to provide customer service via the telephone and Internet. This is not telemarketing. Call centres are used widely by the banking, insurance and travel industries.

Attend our information session on Tuesday, July 15 at 5 pm, Progress Campus, 941 Progress Avenue (one block south of Hwy. 401, east of Markham Road).

To register for our information session, call (416) 289-5000, ext. 2755.
